

Kat Knecht, CPCC, PCC

With 20 years of success in her own coaching business and inspired by her work training coaches for the Co-Active Training Institute for over a decade, Kat is renowned for helping coaches succeed in their meaningful work.

Kat believes wholeheartedly in the human potential and has made her impact on others through her work as a coach, trainer, author, interfaith minister, and inspiring speaker.

Kat and her husband, Curtis, are co-founders of Soul Driven Success, a business academy for professional coaches. Through their training programs, coaches learn how to stay true to themselves and use proven business strategies to prosper in their coaching businesses.

Kat is the author of two books: Evolve Your Coaching Business, a guide for coaches that shows them how to use their coaching skills, talent, and passion to grow and evolve their coaching business into a lifelong, prosperous career and The Soul Search, which tells the story of the challenges she faced and overcame on the journey to creating success in her business and fulfillment in an adventurous life.

Professional Qualifications:

- Front of the Room Leader and Certification Program Leader for the Co-Active Training Institute.
- Co-founder of Soul Driven Success, a training academy for coaches that focuses on helping them build their coaching business while staying true to their core values.

Public Speaking Experience:

- Leading groups of all sizes for over 15 years.
- Presentations at networking and other business organizations
- Ordained interfaith minister giving sermons to congregations large and small across the US.

Contact Kat

SoulDrivenSuccess.com

Kat@SoulDrivenSuccess.com

Kat Knecht